Christmas Eve – 7.30pm

An all-age, family worship service of carol singing, readings and candles.
Join us as we think about some of the signs and symbols of Christmas.
Come and learn the story of the Christingle.

Christmas Eve – 11pm

A more reflective service of readings and meditations, as we journey towards those beautiful first minutes of Christmas morning 2011.
Come and listen to the story of God's love for creation.

Christmas Day – 11am

Another chance to gather as the Knox Family, sharing the Good News of the Christ child, born in Bethlehem, that we might know God's love.
We will sing carols and think about gift-giving at Christmas.
We will also celebrate the great joy of the Sacrament of Baptism.

New Year's Day – 11am

We start the year in the best possible way, gathering round the Lord's table and sharing in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. This will be an all-age Communion service celebrating all of our Knox Family.

Christmas wishes to all members, adherents and friends of Knox Presbyterian Church.
Especially we remember, at this time of long, dark nights, those who find Christmas hardest. Those who feel the pain of the empty chair, the telephone that no longer rings, or the Christmas letter that no longer comes.

Know that your God still holds you in His arms, still shares in your tears, as well as your joys. All this He does, because of the Holy babe of Bethlehem, who truly knows what it means to be one of us.

May the love, peace and hope of God be yours this Christmas.
